

Introduction

DDE is an application service responsible for the exchange of patient demographic data using nationally unique health identifiers. Its main goal is to provide unique identification and tracking of patients within and across health facilities.

The document communicates the major features in this release Demographics Data Exchange mechanism in ART and all other EMR systems to allow the exchange of the clients' demographics.